

CONTENTS

INTRODUCTION/FOREWORD.....	6
SECTION 1 the emotional side of things.....	7
Coping with the bad news.....	7
SECTION 2 explaining the science of blindness and visual impairment.....	9
What are the names and functions of the different parts of the eyes?.....	9
Why is my cat blind?.....	10
What causes blindness in cats?.....	11
What are the signs of blindness in cats?.....	21
How does a vet diagnose blindness and visual impairment?.....	22
What does a specialist eye examination involve?.....	24
What surgical treatments might be recommended?.....	28
Why is it important to provide permanent identification for my cat?.....	30
How does a cat with vision in only one eye cope?.....	30
How does a blind cat cope?.....	31
What changes should I make to my blind cat's home?.....	32
Will my blind cat be interested in playing with me?.....	35
Is it possible for my blind cat to spend time outdoors?.....	36
How should I take my blind cat to the veterinary practice?.....	38
What special considerations does a blind cat have when moving home?.....	38
How should I care for a deaf and blind cat?.....	40
How will my other pets react to a blind companion?.....	40
Should I get another cat to keep my blind cat company?.....	41
What if I'm not coping?.....	41
How can I tell if my blind cat is coping?.....	42
What does euthanasia involve?.....	42
What happens to my cat's body after they die or are euthanased (put to sleep)?.....	42
Is there support available for me in my grief?.....	43
What about my other cat/s – are they likely to grieve?.....	43
SECTION 3 stories from owners of blind cats.....	45
Useful websites and further reference sources.....	55
Glossary of terms used by vets.....	57